Aberdeen , SD

Aberdeen is located in northeastern South Dakota, in the James River valley, approximately 11 miles west of the river. The city has continued to grow, with its last census coming in at 24,658 in 2000.

Aberdeen has nine movie screens, three golf courses, numerous parks, picnic areas, tennis courts, a bowling alley, indoor and outdoor pools, indoor and outdoor ice-skating rinks, roller skating rink, a dance pavilion, indoor and outdoor archery ranges, horse trails, volleyball courts, a mini-golf course, waterslides, bumper boats/go-karts, paddle boats/canoes, bike/walking trails, softball complex, soccer fields, Lakewood Mall, and a vast variety of antique shops, specialty stores and restaurants.

One of their big attractions is the Aberdeen Aquatic Center, which is a 9,000 square foot leisure pool with a zero depth entry, multi-level play structures, waterslides, and interactive features that dump, spill and squirt water. The aquatic center has a 30 foot tall waterslide tower with a 280 foot long raft slide, a 215 foot long body flume slide and a 125 long enclosed body flume slide that provides exhilarating rides. The 350 foot long lazy river is a family favorite. There is a 50 meter, 8 lane lap pool with two diving boards, drop slides and a variety of floatable play features. Located at the intersection of 10th Avenue Southeast and Dakota Street.

The state-of-the-art Joseph H. Barnett Center, located on the Northern State campus, plays host to a complete spectrum of team competitions - NCAA Division II (Wolves) men's and women's basketball State AA, A, and B high school basketball tournaments; swim meets; gymnastics and indoor track meets; wrestling and volleyball tournaments Presentation College offers NAIA Division II (Saints) men's and women's basketball. The Saints play their home games in the Strode Activity Center featuring three full-sized basketball courts, bleacher seating for 1,500 and a walking track.
