

MAYB Tournament

Mankato, MN

July 2nd-3rd 2010

No games on July 4th!! Games begin Fri morning

Games will be played at the Mankato YMCA and Local High Schools.

Tournament ran by college basketball coaches that have been running tournaments for years!

This tournament is great for all teams, boys, girls, competitive, recreational, YMCA teams, town teams, high school teams, AAU teams, there is a spot for every team in this tournament!

Come play against different competition in a new area. This is also a great tournament for graduating seniors that want to play one last time with their friends or teammates.

Boys & Girls grades 3-12

Mankato, Mn

Mankato is a major regional center that has been designated as the 14th Most Livable Micropolitan City in the Nation. Mankato has a population of 36,240 with a contiguous population area of 49,175. The City of Mankato is renowned for great parks and trails. Rivers, lakes, ravines, bluffs, natural prairies and forested areas offer breathtaking landscapes and provide a scenic backdrop for an area steeped in historic significance. At the same time, Mankatoans enjoy the peace of mind and quality of life often associated with smaller towns.

The city blends activities for all ages and interest levels. Mankato's civic center has hosted nationally touring ice shows, music concerts and theatre productions as well as supporting local events. Recreational opportunities abound in the Mankato area for most sports or interests for every season of the year.

Mankato's newest hot spot is Riverfront Park. It is a venue for a variety of events and festivals for people to enjoy. The Grand Lawn, amphitheater, canoe landing, trail head building, playground and art are just some of the items to be found Riverfront Park.

Mankato is also home of Minnesota State University which is a NCAA Division II School, and host to the Minnesota Vikings summer training camp. Mankato has a great many number of dining, and entertainment options for everyone.

For more information please call MAYB @ 316-284-0354 or email : mayb@mayb.com
www.mayb.com to register

HOTEL INFORMATION:

Country Inn & Suites and Conference Center
1900 Premier Drive
Mankato, MN 56001
ph: 507-388-8555