

Vail Valley Tip Off

July 9-11, 2010

Eagle, CO

The Vail Valley Tip takes place in one of the most gorgeous regions of Colorado!

The Vail Valley Tip Off is held in beautiful Eagle, Colorado right on I-70. Nestled against the world class fishing of the Eagle River and just a few miles from scenic Sylvan Lake, Eagle offers a unique opportunity to combine a great basketball event with a family getaway.

Special housing offers at the Americinn and Silverleaf Suites mean your family can stay in deluxe accommodations at a budget friendly price. We've also arranged 2-4 bedroom condos at the Arrowhead ski resort for larger families or teams wanting to stay together – go online at www.vailvalleypartnership.com for information on these special deals!! Just be sure to mention the "WECMRD" name on these special deals. Family camping at Sylvan Lake Campground is also available – check www.parks.state.co.us/Parks/sylvanlake for details on this remarkable family camping facility.

Games are played at the Eagle Valley Middle School, Eagle Rink and Eagle Valley High School. In the event of large registration, additional gyms will include Edwards Field House and Battle Mountain High School. High school officials are used for all games.

This is one you don't want to miss – get your registration in early for the Vail Valley Tip Off.
