

Enid, OK July 24-26, 2009

Schedules Listed Below

The eleventh annual Enid tournament is scheduled for July 24-26. With improved facilities, quality officiating, and efficient game scheduling, this tournament has become a popular end of summer event for MAYB teams.

The recently renovated Mark Price Arena, along with Oakwood Activities Center, Redeemer Lutheran Church, and Oklahoma Bible Academy, give the Enid tournament four high quality sites. Depending on the number of teams, other sites are used. These include Northern Oklahoma College, Drummond High School, and Cimarron High School.

The city of Enid is the hub of northwest Oklahoma. Those participating in the tournament will find extremely friendly people, great shopping (including Oakwood Mall), unique restaurants, and a historic downtown district. Other family attractions include the Museum of the Cherokee Strip, Leonardo's Discovery Warehouse (featuring hands-on programs for both children and adults), Adventure Quest (an outdoor science -learning center) Bartunek Winery and Indian Creek Village Winery, and Southern Heights Heritage Center and Museum (Enid's newest museum). Enid is a growing, progressive community that hosts other conventions and conferences throughout the year.

Come to Enid and enjoy a weekend of basketball and other entertainment! Regional Director is Tim Swartzendruber

For more information on the Enid tournament, contact MAYB office at (316) 284-0354.
