

1st Annual Kevin Maxville Memorial Tournament

July 30,31,& Aug.1

This M.A.Y.B. event is a Benefit Tournament with proceeds donated to the Lester Johnson Family & the Tulsa Sickle Cell Foundation. Lester Johnson was affectionately known as “ Coach Johnson” and left his mark on the lives of many of Tulsa’s youth, both boys & girls. He coached at both the middle & high school level, and coached AAU summer leagues(The Titans he formed) and participated in Basket of Dreams. As a three year letterman for the University of Tulsa Golden Hurricane he earned numerous basketball accolades. But most of all he was a devoted Husband and a great Father to his five kids.

All sites will be equipped with Air Conditioning. We have two sites reserved, they are Glenpool/Jenks Community Center & Chandler Park Community Center both less than 3 years old.
