

Kingman, KS

June 21-23, 2013

One of the longest running tournaments in MAYB history, Kingman and the Kingman area will host the 17th annual event June 21-23. Known for quality officiating, first class facilities, and friendly scheduling, the Kingman tournament will continue to work to make each team have a great experience.

The communities of Kingman, Norwich, Cunningham, and Cheney open their arms each summer for this tournament with unique shopping and dining experiences. Merchants in these towns take pride in giving their customers great attention.

Located a short 40 minutes west of Wichita and 35 minutes southwest of Hutchinson, the Kingman area is easily accessible. Scheduling is done with the driving distance in mind, so teams can play in short period without having to wait long between games.

Officials are carefully screened each year for this tournament with quality being of utmost importance.
